

Honorary Agreement

Baron Transformations, Inc. (BTI) requires this agreement to be honored.

The agreed upon sessions are associated with either a 6 or 12 month commitment, therefore the sessions must be used within those time frames or are forfeited. If a session can not be used for whatever reason within the scheduled week, it can be scheduled into the following week for either a total of two, or joined as a double session. I agree to weekly sessions over the full term of my coaching agreement. When my agreement is made, my commitment is also made. Funds will be paid in full and are therefore non-refundable.

This is a powerful and helpful tool in supporting my commitment to a healthier, happier, and more powerful life.

For whatever reason, should I choose to terminate my coaching relationship, all unused funds will be temporarily frozen. Baron Transformations LLC agrees to donate 40% of the unused portion to a charity organization of my choice.

My signature and designation of charitable organization below are evidence of my agreement. This agreement supports and honors my word, holds my integrity in place and keeps my commitment strong. This also ensures that whether or not I achieve certification as a Freedom Warrior, my personal transformation and greatness is respected and supported on multiple levels.

Transformational Coaching Certifications are Awarded for 6 & 12 month Freedom Warrior Completion.
